

eLearning

Semester Startup Checklist for Faculty Teaching Online

Request multiple sections of a course be combined into a single section: Create a JIRA ticket

Copy course content in D2L from a previous or existing course: Copy Components

Update or add due dates, availability, and content in the following areas as necessary:

Assignments

Quizzes

Discussions

Content

Calendar

Note: You can also use the Manage dates under “Course Admin” to adjust the dates of items in your course: How to use Manage Dates

Add or edit course content including links to outside resources: Create Course Content

Setup or update the grade book:

Grade Book Setup

Topics to Edit Grades

Verify the course start and end dates are correct: Changing Start and End Dates \(DCTC\) or Changing Start and End Dates \(IHCC\)

Post a new or update existing welcome and getting started message in the Announcement widget: How to Post an Announcement

Send a welcome email including: syllabus, required materials, technical requirements, and the date the course will become available in D2L: E-mail Class Participants