

Learning Disability & ADHD Testing

Neuropsychological Evaluations

A list of professionals who perform educational assessments has been compiled as a service to students. These are only suggestions and are not referrals. You may want to use the term "neuropsychological evaluation" when requesting an assessment. If the evaluation documents a disability, accommodations may be provided at Normandale through the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD). Please call 952-358-8625 for an intake/interview appointment.
