Inver Hills Theatre presents Dracula

Inver Hills Community College will present the play “Dracula.”

An adaption by Steven Deitz from the novel by Bram Stoker, “Dracula” is directed George M. Roesler, Inver Hills theatre and communication studies faculty. Rich with both humor and horror, a wickedly theatrical picture of Bram Stoker’s famous vampire is created for the stage.

“Dracula” will play Friday & Saturday, November 1 & 2, and Friday & Saturday, November 8 & 9, 2019. All showtimes are 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $12 general admission, $10 for seniors and students, and free for Inver Hills students. Tickets are available at the door.

About Inver Hills Community College

Inver Hills Community College (Inver Hills) is a place where students can get an affordable, high-quality education to launch their college degree in a supportive environment. With an enrollment of more than 5,000 full- and part-time students, the Inver Hills experience is defined by small class sizes and an engaged and active community that prepares students to succeed at a four-year college or to enter the workforce. Founded in 1970, the campus is located in Inver Grove Heights, less than 10 miles from Saint Paul, Minnesota.
